

I stongly oppose the new ownership rules currently proposed. They will NOT foster competition but, instead, leave many cities/areas with all media outlets owned by the same conglomerate. Local issues, concerns, and news will not be well represented. Diversity will be lost.